ONE OF 500 TESTIMONIALS.

Church-street, Ledbury, Herefordshire,
September 19th, 1862.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to inform you that the fifes, piccolos, drums and triangles, which you have lately supplied to me, are now in active use, and I have great pleasure in being able to say that I am very much delighted with them. In fact, they give the greatest satisfaction possible, and I shall feel a pleasure and be glad to recommend your instruments to any party or parties who may wish to form a band of drums and fifes, as I have done here, for I feel certain that better instruments no one can have for the purpose. The fifes are a well-finished and a first-rate article, the tone of them most sweet; the drums I cannot speak of too highly, they are well made, the tone of them excellent; they have nothing of that disagreeable harshness of sound which I have heard in many drums of the same kind. The piccolos are first-rate instruments, the tone of them most perfect. In fact, I am very much pleased with the whole of them, and so much so, that I can most conscientiously recommend them to any person. Several first-class musicians have used them, also some members of the Rifle Corps Band, including the bandmaster, and all agree that they are instruments of a superior quality and correctness of tone.

I am, Sir, yours very faithfully,

Mr. R. Croger. W. F. CABLE.
